

School visit inspires young movie buffs

CLASSROOM CINEMA: Kids in Otters class settle down for a visit from Film Club TH6G011009newlands-2 PICTURE by BRIAN GREE

IT WAS lights, camera, action at a school in Ramsgate on Thursday (October 1) when they were visited by film buffs.

Otters class at Newlands School in Dumpton Lane took a break from maths and science to watch a screening of Pixar cartoon the Iron Giant in their own classroom.

The cinematic experience was put on by national group Film Club, which set up the projector and screen and handed out popcorn.

After the film, the kids discussed what could be learned from it.

It was part of a national scheme to teach kids about the world by showing them films they might not otherwise see at home or on TV.
